(MEA) Board President, expressing their desire to develop a better working relationship with Chugach. Both Mr. Jordan and Chairman Lipscomb expressed their willingness to communicate better in the future. Mr. Jordan made note that MEA has very strict bylaws regarding communications between boards and board members.

B. Committee Reports

Vice Chairman Christopherson reported on the Operations Committee meeting held on June 1, 2005. Topics included improvement of member communication through publications; Board Policy 115, Director Vacancy, was reviewed and a revised policy will be presented at tonight's meeting; Alaska Railbelt Energy Authority JAA members met in Fairbanks on June 9, 2005, to negotiate a final agreement; Operations Committee goals for 2005/2006 were approved.

Director Vazquez reported on the June 7, 2005, meeting with Standard & Poor's (S&P) and representatives of Chugach management. Chugach's current rating is A- with a negative outlook. The focus of the visit was to evaluate the outlook portion of the rating. S&P Benchmarks - Chugach has the highest rating among our peer groups. The Chugach bond rating is considered adverse in S&P's opinion. The fuel surcharge is considered favorable. Bond debt for $180,000,000 is due in 2011 and 2012. The fact that Chugach does have access to funds through CoBank and National Rural Utilities Cooperative Finance Corporation (NURCFC) is considered favorable.

Director Vazquez discussed the June 8, 2005, Finance Committee meeting. Items reviewed included the April unbundled financial statements; adoption of the 2005/2006 Finance Committee goals; review of two action items that will be presented at tonight's meeting - CoBank Short Term Line of Credit Renewal and adding an additional signer to the Securities and Exchange Commission filings.

C. Alaska Power Association (APA) Report
